TOURISM INTEREST

The Winter Antiques Show

January 23rd to February 1st at the Park Avenue Armory on 67th Street in Manhattan.

The show features over seventy exhibitors ranging from fine arts to furniture to jewelry and rare objects. The Winter Antiques Show marks its 61st year in 2015 as the most prestigious venue in America, featuring the "best of the best" from antiquities through the 1960s.

Park Avenue Armory, 643 Park Avenue New York, NY 10065 (212) 616 3930

No Pants on The Subway

If you happen to be riding the subway on January 11th don't be alarmed if people are riding the train wearing no pants. It's a silly annual event called the "No Pants Subway Ride," staged by the group Improv Everywhere.

NEIGHBORHOOD HIGHLIGHT: UPPER WEST SIDE

Check out a classic New York City neighborhood: the Upper West Side, famously featured in movies like "You've Got Mail" and TV Shows like Seinfeld. The neighborhood includes Central Park, Riverside Park, Lincoln Center, The Beacon Theatre and the American Museum of Natural History and New York Historical Society.

New York Historical Society: Opening January 16th at the historical society is an exhibit about the 1965 civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama.

American Museum of Natural History: Favorites include the Blue Whale, planetarium, dinosaur wing and an extensive collection on Native Americans.

Central Park: includes Strawberry Fields, on the west side of the park between 71st and 74th streets, as a memorial to John Lennon. Lennon was murdered in 1980 outside the famous Dakota building 1 West 72nd Street.
